

UGA Agricultural Education Scholarship Fillable PDF Instructions

We have created a combined scholarship application for both the Cobb and Cheek Agricultural Education Scholarships. While the form is the same, the deadlines are separate. If you apply to both scholarships, you must submit this form once for each scholarship. Follow these directions to apply for each.

- 1) Download this form and save on your computer.
- 2) After saving, type your information into the fillable PDF and save.
- 3) Email to Dr. Jason Peake at jpeake@uga.edu once you have completed your scholarship application and obtained the additional documents.

Deadlines:

- Jim Frank Cobb Scholarship: March 1
- Lt. Col. Earl Cheek Scholarship: December 1

Jim Frank Cobb Agricultural Education Scholarship

Scholarship Objective

To provide a scholarship that can assist students pursuing a degree in agricultural education.

Amount of the Award

The maximum award provided for one academic year will be $500.00, provided in a single payment during the spring semester.

Application Instructions

Each applicant is responsible for all of the following materials being received by Dr. Jason Peake via email at jpeake@uga.edu on or before the deadline of March 1 each year.

- Completed Application
- Letter of recommendation from a faculty member in the College/University.
- Unofficial transcript(s) of courses and grades covering all courses up to the time of applying for this scholarship.

This scholarship is a one-time, non-renewable grant. Any tax obligation arising from the award is the responsibility of the recipient. Applicants must be full-time sophomores, juniors or seniors enrolled in college. No application will be considered until all materials have been received by the Scholarship Selection Committee. No application materials post-marked after the deadline will be considered. This scholarship is awarded for the purpose of attending a specific institution to study agricultural education. This scholarship is awarded without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex or people with limited ability. All applicants must major in agricultural education. Any change in major status will result in the recipient returning these scholarship funds.

Lt. Col. Earl Cheek Agricultural Education Scholarship

Scholarship Objective

Lt. Col. Earl Cheek taught Agricultural Education in Georgia for 37 years. In 1998 he funded an endowment to the Georgia FFA Alumni Association to provide scholarships for students during apprentice teaching. Agricultural Education majors who plan to teach Agricultural Education in Georgia are eligible to apply.

Amount of the Award

Determined annually by the Scholarship Committee

Application Instructions

Scholarship winners are announced at the Agricultural Education Hall of Fame Ceremony in January at the State FFA-FCCLA Center at Covington.

To meet the deadline, students are responsible for the following form and additional materials being received by Dr. Jason Peake via email at jpeake@uga.edu or before the deadline of December 1 each year.

Applicants should compile the following information in a single email:

- Completed Application
- Unofficial transcript(s) of courses and grades covering all courses up to the time of applying for this scholarship.
